

Little Jewel meets Little Sparkle: The Mystery of the Lost Cloak

by: Felicity Battig

Once upon a time there was a cat named little Jewel. She liked to play and make friends.

one day, she wanted to play in the snow. she took off her cloak and jumped in!

All of a sudden, there was a great, big wolflike shadow.
A lion-like creature jumped out from a bush! Little Jewel jumped up and started running away. Suddenly she look behind her and,
instead of a lion... there was a cat!

"who are you?" asked little Jewel.

"my name is little sparkle," said the cat. "That's just like my name! i'm little Jewel," she responded.

"I get it!" he said, "Do you want to play?"

"Yeah, after we go back for my cloak."

When they got back, they didn't find it, so they began to search. After a while, they saw a red line. "That's the same color as my cloak!" little Jewel exclaimed.
"Let's follow it!" Little sparkle said.

The string led to a unicorn wearing a cloak! "That's my cloak!" said little Jewel. "Oh it's yours? I didn't know sorry!" said the unicorn, giving it back.
"My name is Bella". Then, they all went to play in the snow. The end.
