Once upon a time, there were four horses that lived on a blue farm. The mommy's name is Mamma Golden and the daddy's name is Papa Red. Their daughters are Ruby and Gem. Papa Red was big and strong while Mamma Golden was beautiful and smart.

Ruby was helpful and taught her little sister how to gallop. Gem was cute and she liked to jump in the air.

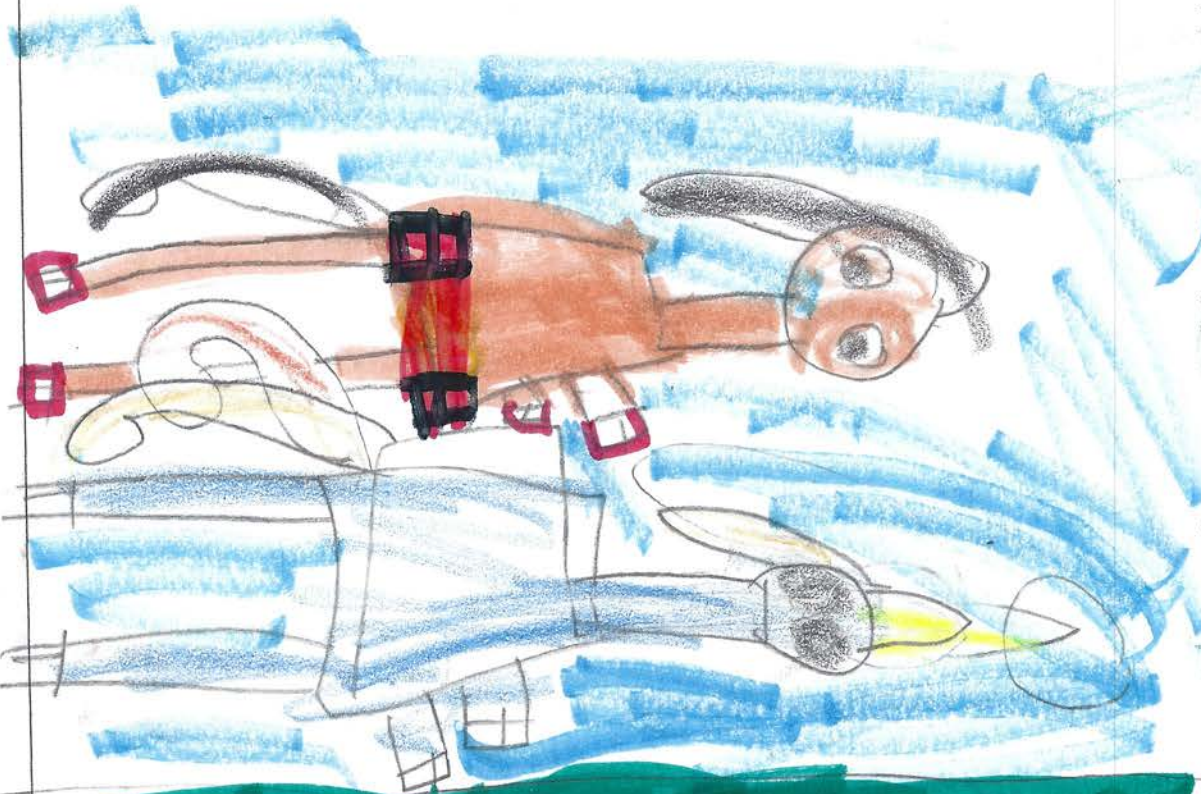

Gem

At school, Ruby met a unicorn friend named Heartstone. She loved to make fireworks Heartstone is 10 years old like Ruby. Gem saw them talking to each other. Then Gem said "Hi!" to both of them. The next day Gem met Starstone. She likes to make stars in the sky.

One day at work, Mama Golden met Heartstone's and Starstone's parents Lucy and Bob. They all decided to go to a party. At the party, Little Gem asked "why do unicorns have beautiful horns?". Heartstone replied "Because unicorns are born with them". Little Gem really wanted to have a horn.

Hearthstone said "Let me give you a horn and for your whole family". The next day, they set off to a journey to the rainbow and became unicorns.
