

The Dragon
The Unicorn
by Emily Brewer

---

Once upon a time, a dragon and a unicorn lived in a peaceful village, and they were friends. Even though they were very different from each other, the enchantment of the peace diamond made it so everyone got along.

An evil witch was planning to steal the peace diamond. The ground began to shake, and she appeared saying, "Ha, Ha, Ha! The peace diamond will be mine!"

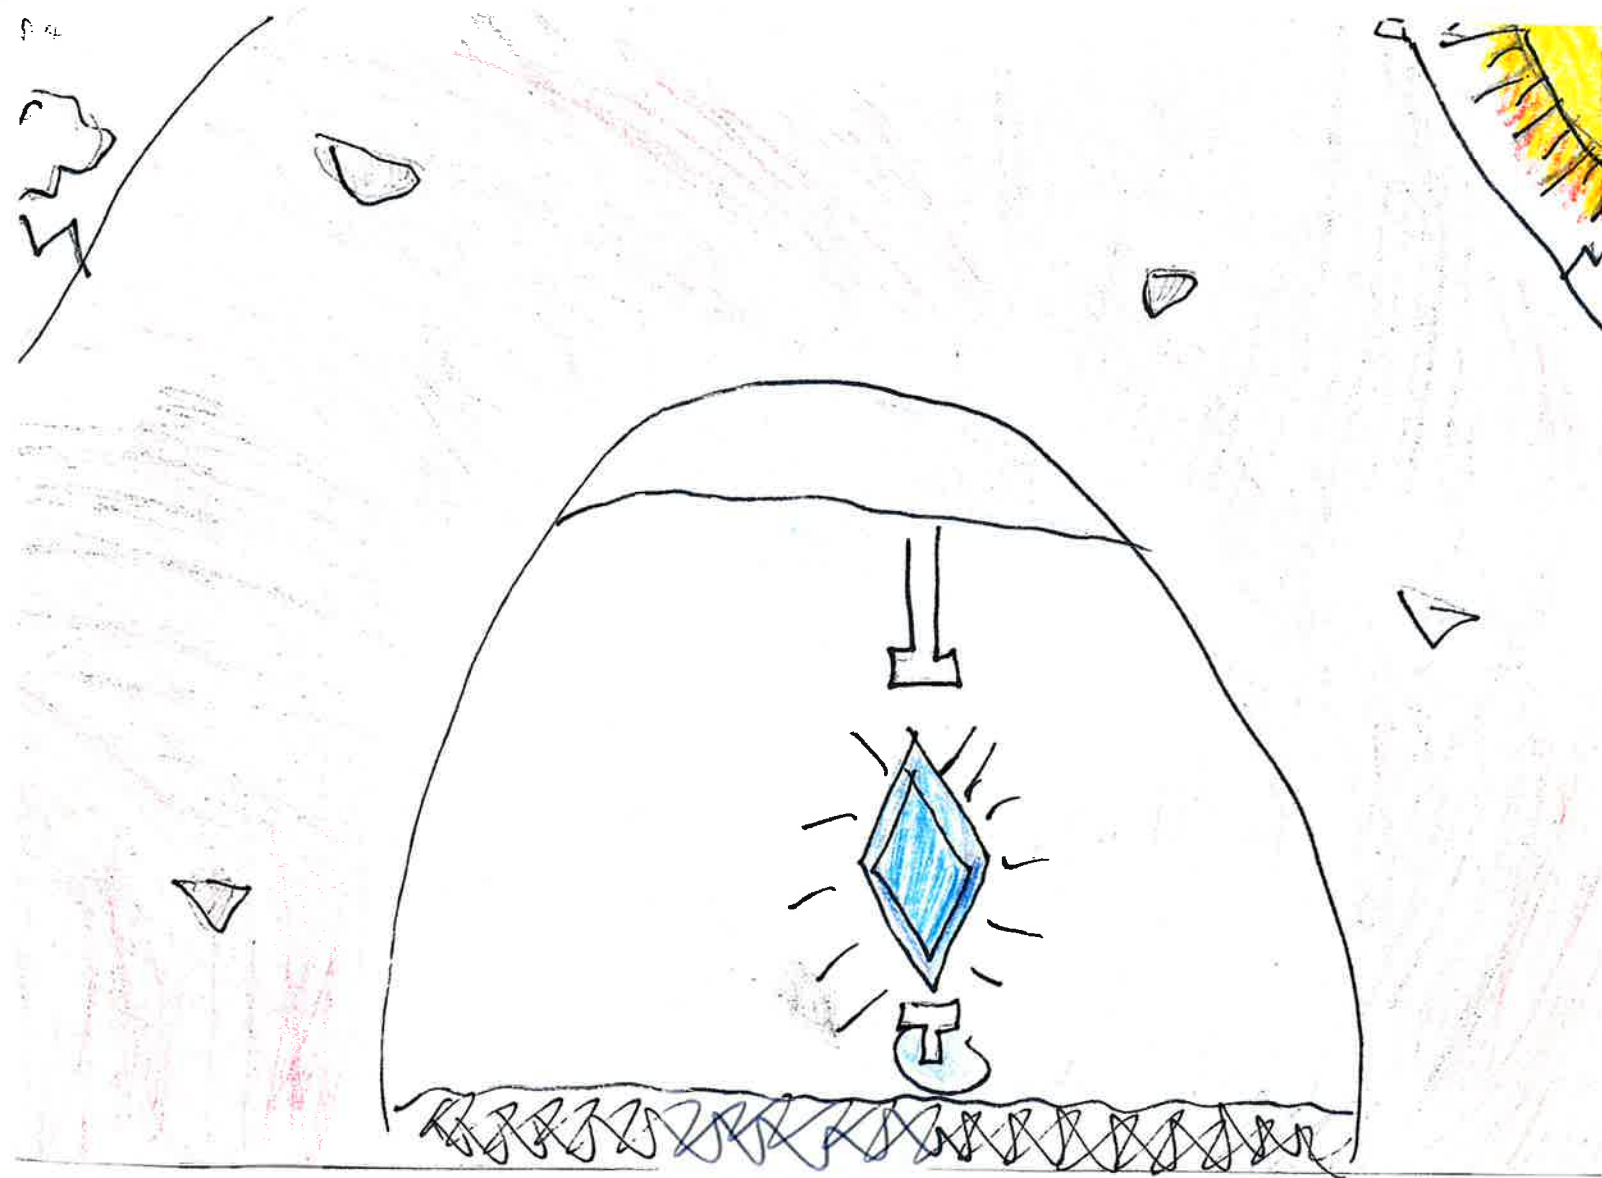

"No it will not!" cried the dragon.

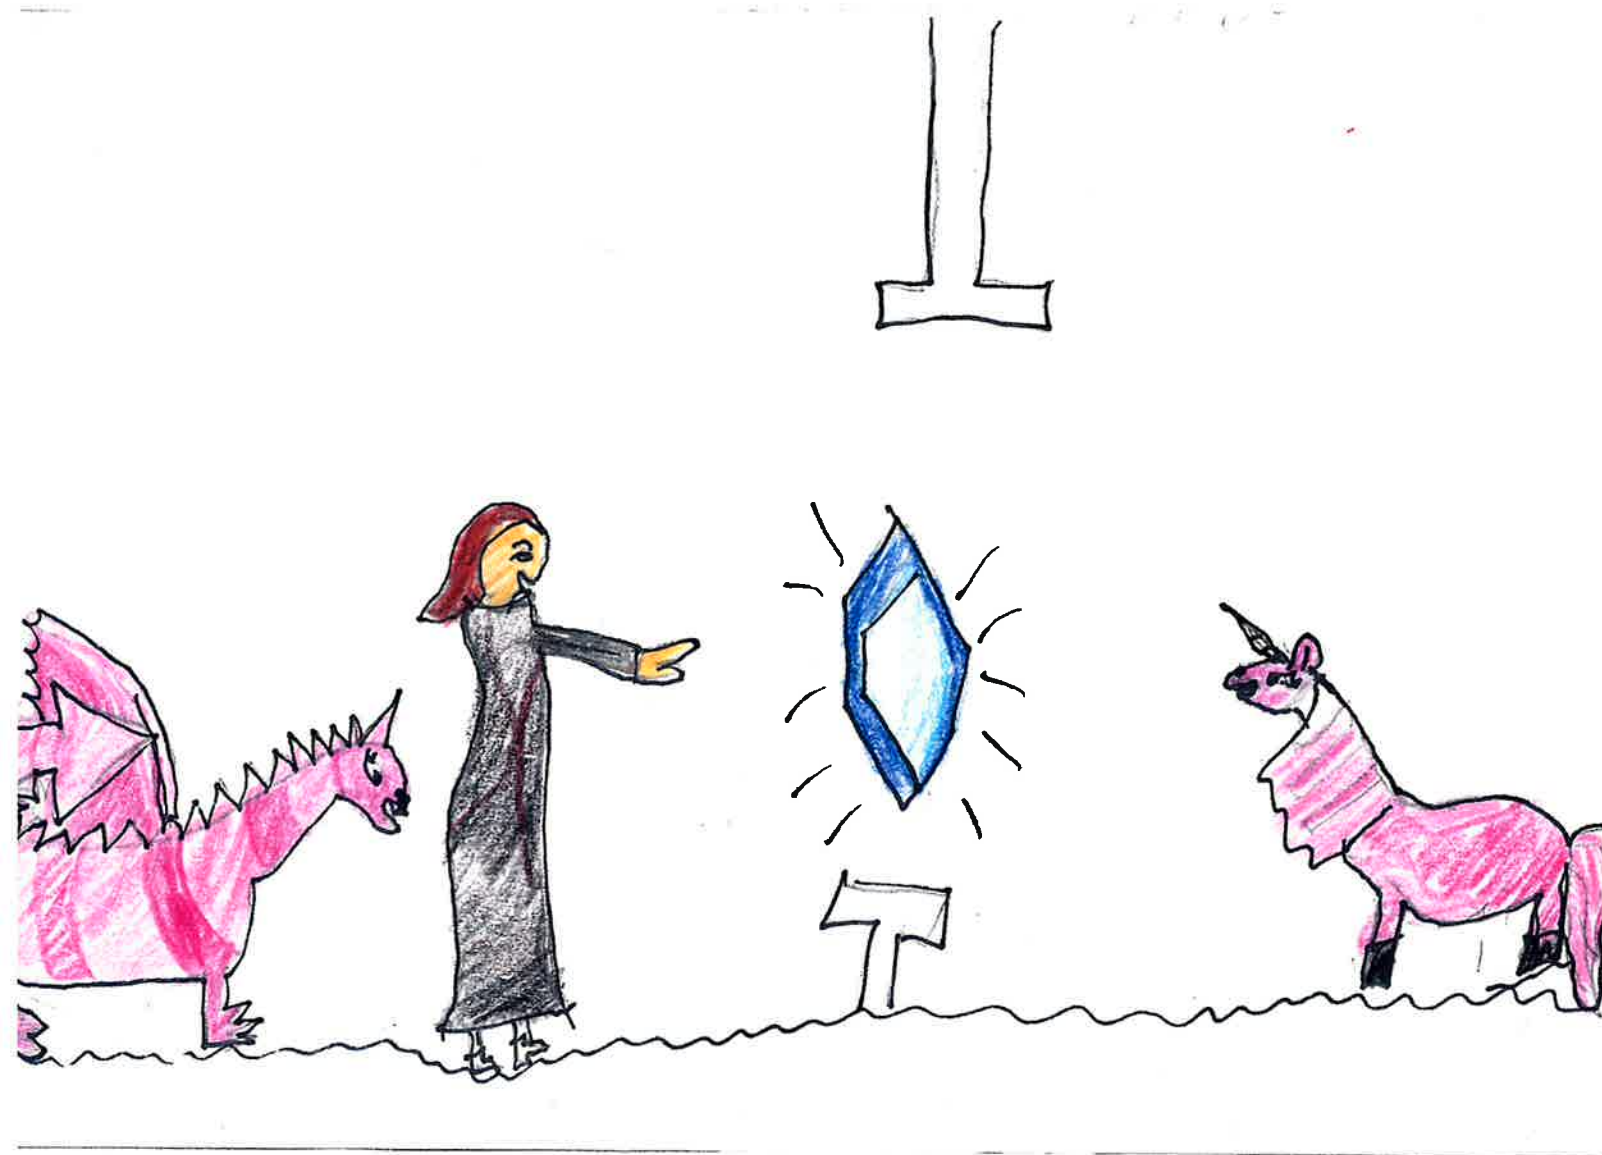

"What are you going to do to stop me?!"

"There is no way you will be able to find it," said the unicorn. "What you don't know is that it is hidden in a cave."

"You fools! You have just lead me to it!" So she ran up to the cave. The dragon and the unicorn followed her.

As they reached the cave, they saw the diamond floating and sparking in the middle of the cave.

The witch reached for the diamond.

"Stop!" cried the dragon and unicorn. "Why are you doing this?!"

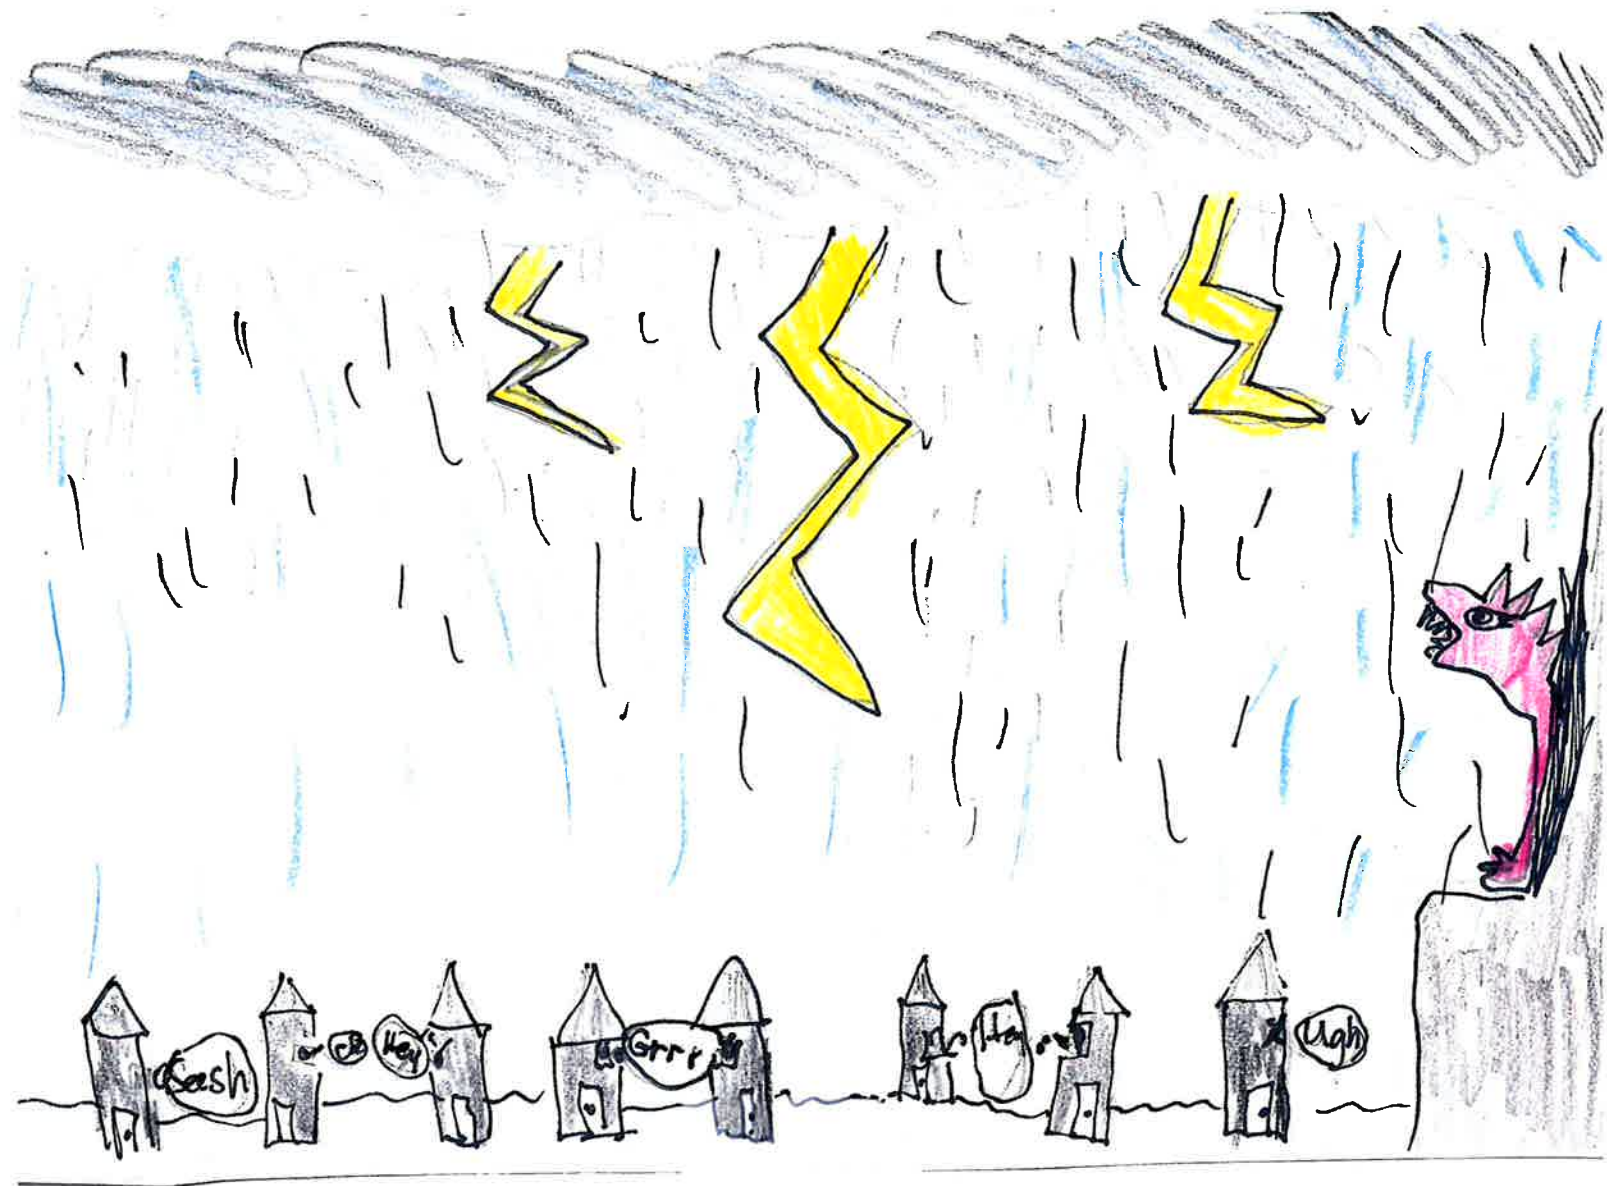

"If I have the peace diamond, then there will be no peace, and I can rule over all of you," said the witch.

"We don't want to fight!"

"So don't!" she cackled as she grabbed the diamond. "Ha, Ha, Ha. I got it!"

"Noooooooooooo!" screamed the dragon.

Suddenly everything turned black and everyone started fighting with each other.

"Now the diamond and YOU are mine," cried the witch.

Witch

As they looked down at the village they said, "Oh no! It looks terrible! The witch has made chaos. Come on, let's stop her!" The dragon and the unicorn charged the witch.

"Come out minions and fight!" yelled the witch. Her minions brought out their weapons and started fighting the dragon and the unicorn.

It was a fierce battle. As the dragon swung her tail and the unicorn flashed her horn, they were charged with every magic power.

With their magical powers, the dragon and the unicorn won the battle. The witch melted and the minions disappeared.

The End

The diamond was returned, peace was restored, and the dragon and unicorn's friendship was bonded forever.
